HOMETOWN: New Britain, Connecticut

EDUCATION: Keene State '96 - B.S. in elementary education;
Hartford '03 - M.S. in computer technology

FAMILY: Wife - Heather, three children - Avery, Bradyn, Tyler

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Owns a 211-178 (.542) career record as a head coach
- Totaled five WNIT appearances and one NCAA Tournament appearance
- Set program record for wins in a season and conference wins in a season at UMass in 2022-23 with 27 wins overall and 14 A-10 wins.
- Clinched program's first A-10 Regular Season title in 2022-23
- Led UMass to first A-10 Conference Tournament title in 2021-22 season
- Coached two conference Player of the Year award recipients and a total of 18 All-Conference members

Tory Verdi (pronounced Ver - dee) was announced as the University of Pittsburgh's 10th women's basketball coach on April 7, 2023. In 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach, Verdi has compiled a 211-178 ledger entering the 2024-25 campaign, including stops at Columbia (2004-05), Eastern Michigan (2012-2016), Massachusetts (2016-23) and Pitt (2023-current).

In his first year guiding the Panthers, Verdi developed the ACC's Most Improved Player, Liatu King into one of the premier players across the league. Under Verdi, King saw improvements in nearly every statistical category en route to also garnering All-ACC First Team honors.

Prior to arriving at Pitt, Verdi spent the previous seven seasons at Massachusetts where he helped lead the Minutewomen to 128 wins. Verdi guided the program to new heights as it secured its first regular season Atlantic 10 title in 2022-23 after earning the program's first Atlantic 10 Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament berth in 2021-22.

With a wealth of experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, Verdi-coached teams have advanced to postseason play in 17 of the past 23 seasons. Over his seven years in Amherst, Mass., Verdi turned Massachusetts women's basketball into a consistent contender in the A-10 and beyond, returning the program to heights not seen since the 1990s.

The 2022-23 season turned into one of the most successful campaigns in program history as the Minutewomen posted a 27-7 overall record and a 14-2 A-10 mark, while qualifying for the WNIT and advancing to the second round for just the third time in program history. The potent offensive attack posted the highest scoring average (76.2 ppg) since the 1979-80 season and marked the third straight season it led the A-10 in scoring offense. The offense was led by Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year, Sam Breen, who earned Atlantic 10 Player of the Year honors after averaging 17.3 points, 10.1 rebounds and 3.6 assists while shooting 47.5% from the floor and connecting on 46 three-pointers.

The 2021-22 season shattered glass ceilings and broke records, as the program garnered its first Atlantic 10 Championship title to earn an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament for the first appearance since 1998. On March 5, 2022, UMass stopped Saint Joseph's for Verdi's 100th win at the helm of Massachusetts to advance to the A-10 Finals. The No. 3-seeded Minutewomen defeated No. 1 seed Dayton in the title game to hoist the A-10 trophy.

Throughout the season, UMass made history receiving votes in a national poll for the first time since the 1994-95 season and earned votes five times during the year. Individually, Massachusetts saw Samantha Breen and Destiney Philoxy become the 21st and 22nd Minutewomen to eclipse the 1,000th career point each. Both Philoxy and Breen played in their 100th career games that year, as well.

Capped by a berth in the WNIT, the 2020-21 season was one to remember with the program's first national postseason appearance since 1998, in addition to the first trip to the Atlantic 10 Championship Game since '98. On March 22, 2021, UMass defeated Ohio in the WNIT Consolation Final, securing Verdi's 150th career victory as a collegiate head coach. On that special day, UMass also made history garnering multiple postseason wins for the first time.

The 2019-20 season featured a slew of team and individual superlatives. UMass tied a program record with 20 wins, set a new top mark with an 11-game winning streak and finished tied for fourth place in the A-10, the highest under the league's current format. Massachusetts hosted, and won, an A-10 Tournament game at the Mullins Center for the first time since 1998, en route to the league Quarterfinals.

Verdi's Minutewomen made tremendous strides during his first two seasons (2016-17, 2017-18), garnering a pair of A-10 All Rookie selections and Hailey Leidel's Rookie of the Year nod in 2017. Maggie Mulligan was one of the league's most improved players during that time with 33 double-doubles.

Prior to Verdi's arrival in Amherst, he accumulated a head coaching record of 72-61 across four seasons at Eastern Michigan. His teams advanced to the 2015 and 2016 WNIT, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance, and the Mid-American Conference Championship Game in 2015.

Arriving at EMU for the 2012-13 campaign, he took an 8-22 squad to a record of 24-13 in 2014-15 and 22-12 in 2015-16. He also secured the MAC's No. 1 recruiting class twice during his tenure.

Under Verdi, the 2015-16 MAC West Division preseason favorite Eagles made their mark in the EMU record books. Defensively, the team totaled the fourth-most rebounds in a single season (1,364), while also ranking seventh all-time in blocks (92) and third in steals (386).

EMU's high-tempo offense poured in 2,445 points, the third-most in a single season in school history, along with dishing out 435 assists, good for seventh-most. Additionally, the Eagles converted 218 three-pointers, ranking fourth all-time and marking the third consecutive season in which EMU made 200 or more triples.

A large part of Verdi's 2014-15 record-setting performance came from the Eagles late run during the regular season and into postseason play. EMU finished the regular season with wins in its final four games, while also winning seven of its last eight. The Eagles appeared in eight postseason games, winning six of them. The Eagles advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament Championship, winning four-of-five MAC Tournament games, before advancing to the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT. The Eagles rewrote the EMU record book with 124 different all-time top performances, including the most points in a season (2,549), field goals made (936), rebounds (1,539) and three-pointers made (223).

Verdi spent two seasons as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2010-11, 2011-12). The Jayhawks advanced to the 2012 NCAA Sweet Sixteen and the 2011 WNIT Second Round.

Prior to his arrival in Lawrence, Verdi was an assistant coach at Nebraska for five seasons (2005-10). The Huskers advanced to the postseason every year Verdi served on staff in Lincoln and collected the Big 12 Regular-Season Championship in 2009-10 with a 16-0 conference record. History was made that season as the Huskers secured a No. 1 seed in the NCAA tournament and reached the Sweet Sixteen.

Verdi spent three seasons on staff with the WNBA's Connecticut Sun (2003-05), reaching the postseason during each year and winning the Eastern Conference in 2005.

In 2004-05, Columbia tabbed Verdi the top assistant and eventual interim head coach.

Verdi was inducted into the New Britain Sports Hall of Fame on April 24, 2016.

He graduated from Keene State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. Following that, he completed his master's degree in computer technology from Hartford in 2003.

CANDICE FINLEY

Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator
2nd Season | Eastern Kentucky, '02

Candice Finley enters her second season as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Pitt women's basketball in 2024-25. She oversees the Pitt recruiting efforts while also working closely with the Panthers' wing players.

Finley brought 15 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Panthers' sidelines. She came to Pitt after spending the previous four seasons at Xavier, one season as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator (2019-20) and three seasons as associate head coach/recruiting coordinator (2020-23). During her time at Xavier, she primarily worked with the Musketeer's post players.

During her four seasons at Xavier, Finley helped two players earn All-BIG EAST honors (Fernanda Ovalle, A'riana Gray) while off the court, 16 players earned Academic All-BIG EAST Honors. Ayanna Townsend was also named the 2021-22 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, becoming the first Musketeer to earn the academic honor.

Finley helped forward Courtney Prenger turn in the best season of her career in 2022-23 as she started 29 games while averaging 7.0 points and 3.9 rebounds while shooting 46.7% from the floor. Prenger also notched 40 blocks on the season which ranks 10th in a single season in program history while posting 109 rejections in her career, ranking sixth in program history for career blocks. She also helped freshman Fernanda Ovalle earn Big East All-Freshman Team honors after averaging 8.4 points and 4.4 rebounds.

Xavier finished the 2021-22 season with a .746 free-throw percentage, ranking third in single-season program history. The Musketeers also

HOMETOWN: Detroit, MI

ALMA MATER: Eastern Kentucky, '02

PLAYING CAREER:

- Four-year letterwinner at Eastern Kentucky (1997-01)
- Played professionally in Luxembourg (2001-02)

COACHING CAREER:

- Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator - Pitt (2023-Present)
- Associate Head Coach - Xavier (2020-23)
- Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator - Xavier (2019-20)
- Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator - UMass (2017-19)
- Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator - Eastern Michigan (2012-16)
- Assistant Coach - Eastern Kentucky (2008-11)
- Assistant Coach - Southern Connecticut State (2007-08)
- Head Coach - Romulus High School (2005-07)

finished the year with 89 blocks to rank ninth in single-season program history.

Individually, Finley helped Townsend turn in a solid career as she netted over 500 points, 300 rebounds and 80 blocks which ranks seventh all-time in program history. Townsend was also tabbed the 2021-22 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Xavier finished the COVID-19 shortened season (2020-21) ranked second in the BIG EAST in steals per game (9.9), while ranking 35th in the NCAA. The 9.9 steals per game also ranked fourth in single-season Xavier history.

Individually, Aaliyah Dunham finished the 2020-21 campaign ranked first in the BIG EAST in assist/turnover ratio (3.17) - while ranking sixth in the NCAA. She also finished the year ranked 52nd in the NCAA in steals per game (2.47).

Finley helped coach All-BIG EAST performer A'riana Gray in 2019-20. The forward led the conference in rebounding for the second time in as many seasons. She also helped coach point guard Aaliyah Dunham who finished the season averaging 4.5 assists per game, ranking fourth in the BIG EAST.

Prior to her stint in Cincinnati with the Musketeers, Finley spent six seasons as an assistant coach working under Verdi at UMass (2017-19) and Eastern Michigan (2012-16). In her two seasons at UMass, Finley helped the Minutewomen post 30 wins after only winning nine games during the 2016-17 season. She also served as the recruiting coordinator during her time in Amherst, hauling in the 57th ranked class in the country in 2018 (according to Blue Star Basketball).

Prior to UMass, she spent four seasons at Eastern Michigan (2012-16) - helping the Eagles post two 20-win seasons and advancing to three postseason tournaments. The Eagles won eight games during her first season (2012-13) on the bench before recording 24 wins only two seasons later and playing in the WNIT Sweet 16.

Along with coaching the post players, she served as the recruiting coordinator and was key in twice securing the No. 1 recruiting classes in the Mid-American Conference. On the court, Finley's post players saw continued growth and progression with several more than doubling their offensive output from previous seasons.

Finley also has assistant coaching stops at Eastern Kentucky (2008-11), Southern Connecticut State (2007-08) and Romulus (Mich.) from 2003-05. She also served as head coach at Romulus High School from 2005-07.

Finley played professionally in Luxembourg for one season following a standout playing career at Eastern Kentucky.

A three-year starter at Eastern Kentucky (1997-01), Finley concluded her playing career with more than 1,000 points, nearly 500 rebounds and more than 100 steals while making 45.4% of her field goal attempts. She earned Second Team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors as a senior after leading the team in scoring (13.0) and rebounding (5.5). Finley also helped the Lady Colonels secure the 1998 OVC Championship.

She graduated from Eastern Kentucky in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in apparel design & merchandising.

The Detroit, MI, native also won three state titles as a player at Bishop Borgess HS.

JOHN MARCUM

Assistant Coach / Defensive Coordinator
1st Season | Oklahoma Baptist, '97

Head coach Tory Verdi announced the addition of assistant coach John Marcum to the University of Pittsburgh women's basketball coaching staff on April 12, 2024. Marcum joins the staff with 18+ years collegiate coaching experience with stops at Chipola College, Syracuse, Butler, Grand Canyon, East Carolina, Indiana State, Cal Baptist, and Oklahoma Baptist.

Marcum spent last season as the head coach at Chipola College leading the team to 24-8 record and an FCSAA Region VIII Tournament second round appearance.

Prior to his stint at Chipola College, he served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Syracuse. Marcum signed two top ten recruiting classes composed of multiple McDonald's All-Americans, including Kamilla Cardoso, the top-ranked center and No. 5 overall player in the Class of 2020. In the 2020-21 season, Cardoso won multiple Atlantic Coast Conference awards including Freshman of the Year and Co-Defensive Player of the Year. She was also named a member of the All-Freshman Team, All-Defensive Team, and All-ACC First Team. Emily Engstler earned ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors as one of the top players off the bench in the country averaging 10.5 points and 9.1 rebounds per game and the Orange led the ACC in blocks per game (7.0).

In his second season with the Orange, Marcum worked with Alaysia Styles, Syracuse's lone post player, a guard who played the entire season out of position due to limited personnel. Under Marcum's guidance, Styles posted the best numbers of her career averaging 10.3 points and 6.1 rebounds per game. Styles scored in double figures in 18 of Syracuse's 29 games and recorded a career-high 21 points shooting 5-for-9 from the field and a perfect 10-for-10 at the free throw line in a road win against Pitt on Feb. 13.

From 2017-2020, Marcum was the top assistant for the Butler women's basketball team. After finishing 6-25 in the season prior to Marcum's arrival, the Bulldogs improved by nine wins in his first season and posted their first 20-win season since 2010-11 in year two. Overall, the Bulldogs were 57-38 in his three seasons in Indianapolis.

Marcum's first head coaching job was at NCAA Division II school, California Baptist, where he led the Lancers to a 47-12 record in two seasons (2010-12). Cal Baptist won their first conference championship in program history and made their first national tournament appearance since 1982 during Marcum's tenure.

After beginning his coaching career in 2002 as a men's basketball assistant coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma Baptist, Marcum transitioned to the women's basketball game in 2007 and spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma Baptist.

Marcum also served one season as an assistant coach under Kareem Abdul-Jabbar for the Oklahoma Storm of the former United States Basketball League, leading the Storm to the 2002 USBL Championship.

Marcum played collegiate baseball and graduated from Oklahoma Baptist in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. He was a member of OBU's NAIA World Series team in 1996 and served as the President of OBU's Fellowship of Christian Athletes chapter. He earned his master's in secondary education with a concentration in physical education in 2003 from East Central University.

DEVAN NEWMAN

Assistant Coach

1st Season | Oregon, '07

Head coach Tory Verdi announced the addition of assistant coach Devan Newman to the Pitt women's basketball coaching staff on July 8, 2024.

Newman brings 15+ years of NCAA Division I coaching experience, highlighted by a four year stint at Louisville where she served in a variety of capacities.

Newman arrives from Binghamton where she served as the associate head coach since 2021 and previously as an assistant coach from 2018-21.

During the 2019-20 campaign, Newman helped the Bearcats record the best start (9-0) and the most wins in school history. Additionally, during each of her six seasons, she helped produce multiple all-conference honorees.

Prior to her stint at Binghamton, Newman served as an assistant coach at Weber State from 2011-18. Notably, during the 2015-16 season, the Wildcats won a school record 23 games and reached the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) championship game.

Newman began her career as a graduate assistant at Louisville, before being promoted to assistant director of operations/special assistant to the head coach. She earned her bachelor's degree in sport administration from Oregon in 2007, before earning her master's degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2009.

ANTHONY BRAMMER

Assistant Coach / Director of NIL
2nd Season | Old Dominion, '08

Anthony Brammer is entering his second season as assistant coach and director of NIL for the Pitt women's basketball program in 2024-25.

In his role as assistant coach, Brammer is involved in on-court instruction as well as player development. In the newly founded role of director of NIL, Brammer is responsible for helping players develop and manage their brands, educating student-athletes on how to make smart decisions, while maximizing their NIL opportunities, and serving as an NIL liaison between internal units.

Brammer came to Pitt following one season as assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Evansville where he helped the Aces post their best season since 2016-17. Brammer helped senior guard Abby Feit earn Second Team All-Missouri Valley Conference after pacing the Aces with a career-high 15.5 points and 7.6 rebounds while connecting on 44.6% of her field goal attempts and leading the team with 54 three-pointers.

Prior to joining the Aces staff, Brammer spent four seasons as the University of South Florida's head video coordinator. At USF, he was responsible for the video breakdown, self-scout and opponent scouts, along with the team's video exchange. In addition, he was also responsible for the Enhancing U and community outreach programs for the team and oversaw the managerial staff and male practice players, among other duties.

Prior to USF, Brammer served as a technical support representative with Synergy Sports Technology from 2015-19 when he trained clients on all of Synergy's products and features. Synergy is the global provider of data, analytics and tools that coaches and general managers rely upon to evaluate players, create scouting reports and build game plans.

A native of Yorktown, VA, Brammer also served as an assistant coach at Lecanto High School in Lecanto, Fla., from 2015-17, when he assisted with on and off the court practices and development, workouts and team-building exercises.

The first of Brammer's two stops at USF came from 2010 to 2014 when he served as video coordinator for the Bulls' men's basketball program under former head coach Stan Heath. In 2012 the men's basketball team finished fourth in the BIG EAST Conference - with Heath being named BIG EAST Coach of the Year - and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, defeating California and Temple before falling to Ohio, one game shy of the Sweet 16. In that role, Brammer's responsibilities consisted of assisting the coaching staff with each of the opponent scouting reports, coordinating game film break down and editing for self-scouting and evaluation, along with handling the film exchange and creating the video playbook.

Brammer received his Bachelor of Science degree in sports management in 2008 from Old Dominion University (ODU), in Norfolk, VA, where he was a member and treasurer of the Sport Management Association. He went on to earn a Master of Science degree in sports management from ODU in 2010.

While attending Old Dominion, Brammer became the head manager of the men's basketball team, where he assisted the coaching staff during practices, coordinated game film and completed other administrative duties before rising to the position of graduate student manager and administrative assistant.

Brammer has also volunteered at several basketball camps. He worked as a graduate assistant for the Nike-affiliated Boo Williams 17 & Under AAU Team, from 2006-08 when he assisted in developing multiple NBA and NCAA Division I players.

ABBY ANDERSON

Director of Basketball Operations
3rd Season | Scranton, '21

Abby Anderson begins her second season as the Director of Basketball Operations and third season overall for the Pitt women's basketball program in 2024-25. Anderson assists Verdi with overall logistics for the program, along with planning and executing all team travel and activities.

Anderson previously spent the 2022-23 season as the Panthers' assistant director of recruiting operations. In her role, Anderson assisted the coaching staff in all aspects of recruiting including travel and official visits.

She joined the Panthers' staff after a successful collegiate playing career at the University of Scranton and Saint Francis College. She capped her career in 2021-22 at the University of Scranton where she led the team in scoring (17.6 ppg), rebounding (9.2 rpg) and assists (2.9 apg). As a graduate student, Anderson earned WBCA All-American and D3hoops.com fifth Team All-American accolades. She also garnered D3hoops All-Region and All-Landmark Conference First Team honors while leading the Landmark Conference in rebounding, ranking second in scoring and fourth in three-point shooting. She also earned WBCA Division III Senior All-Star Team and WBCA Ring of Honor recognition after her strong 2021-22 campaign.

Anderson played her first three years of college basketball at St. Francis College from 2017-2020. For her career, she averaged 4.9 points and 3.2 rebounds in 90 games (11 starts). She was a two-time member of the NEC Commissioner's Honor Roll while also being the recipient of the 2019-20 Women's Basketball Team Coaches Award.

She earned her bachelor's degree in accounting with a minor in information technology from St. Francis College in 2021 before earning her master's degree in finance from the University of Scranton in 2023.

BRANDON JACKSON

Director of Video & Player Performance
2nd Season | Wittenberg, '14

Brandon Jackson is entering his second season as director of video & player development for the Pitt women's basketball program in 2024-25. He is in charge of coaches film and breakdown while also helping in player development for the program.

Jackson is a familiar face for Verdi as the two have worked together for a total of nine seasons (one at Pitt, four at EMU, four at UMass). Prior to coming to Pittsburgh, Jackson spent the previous four seasons as director of video operations for the UMass women's basketball program where he utilized film breakdown software daily, charting offensive and defensive tendencies. He also helped to breakdown film with players following practices to help with their development.

Prior to Umass, he spent five seasons at Eastern Michigan as the video coordinator for women's basketball. In his role, Jackson broke down film with players and coaches while also contributing by creating graphics and presentations for team bonding activities.

CHLOE HATFIELD

Assistant Director of Creative Content
2nd Season | Oklahoma State, '23

Chloe Hatfield is entering her second season as assistant director of creative content for the Pitt women's basketball program in 2024-25. She handles all creative content (photo, video, graphics) both internally and externally for the program.

Hatfield joined the Panthers after spending the previous five seasons as a student intern in the creative services department at Oklahoma State. She spent her first four seasons at Oklahoma State working with the women's basketball program as their main creative. She produced content (photo, video, motion graphics) for the Cowgirls social media accounts as well as in-house needs. Traveled with the team over her four years and helped create the programs brand and identity through creative avenues during her time with the program.

During the 2022-23 school year, Hatfield switched roles and began working with the OSU women's golf and wrestling programs as their lead creative. In her role, she produced all the content for the two programs while also planning out the social calendars for the programs. She helped to define and develop a brand for both programs through storytelling of the program, student-athletes, and coaching staffs.

THE VARSITY WALK

Between the Cathedral of Learning and Heinz Chapel in Oakland is a sidewalk called the Varsity Walk, where the names of outstanding Pitt student-athletes are embedded in the stones.

The Varsity Walk was conceived in 1950. The names of new members are added each year.

The hand-carved stones were first presented as the Athletic Committee Award and the Charles C. Hartwig Award. The Athletic Committee recognized the best athlete from any sport. The Charles Hartwig Award was given to the senior athlete who promoted and sponsored the best interests of Pitt athletics, in honor of the 1934 All-American tight end. In 1971, the award's names were changed to Panther and Blue-Gold awards, respectively.

Today, the Panther Award is presented to the graduating senior-athlete who has promoted Pittsburgh athletics through his/her outstanding athletic achievement. The Blue-Gold Award is given to the seniors who best represent the student-athlete ideal based on academic scholarship, athletic achievement, leadership qualities, and citizenship.

Pitt hosted its first-ever NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament first and second rounds on March 18 and 20, 2007 at the Petersen Events Center. The pressure was on for the Panthers to make the tournament for the first time in school history and to play on their home court.

Before the season even began, that goal looked to be in jeopardy as star point guard Mallorie Winn went down with a season-ending knee injury. The team pressed on, however, playing to a school-record 24 wins and their first-ever NCAA Tournament.

Pitt, a No. 8 seed, met up with No. 9 seeded James Madison in the first round. Junior center Mercedes Walker dominated at both ends of the court for 20 points and 15 rebounds and Pitt shook off the stubborn Dukes for a 71-61 victory – the program's first win in its first NCAA Tournament. Shavonte Zellous added 17 points for the eighth-seeded Panthers.

After the first round win over JMU, the Panthers were slated to meet up with No. 1 seeded Tennessee. The Petersen Events Center was rocking with anticipation.

Tennessee jumped out to a quick start, taking a 40-24 lead heading into the locker room. The Panthers were not finished, however, as they pulled to within nine midway through the second half behind the physical play of Walker and the quick touch of Zellous.

The Lady Vols went on to a 68-54 victory to end Pitt's first run in the NCAA Tournament. Tennessee would go on to win the NCAA Tournament that year.

2007-08

Despite being named a No. 6 seed, the Panthers were shipped out west to Albuquerque, N.M., for their second trip to the NCAA Tournament. First up, the Cowgirls of Wyoming.

Pitt got off to a bit of a slow start at the Pit, in front of a biased, and raucous crowd of 6,097.

Brianna Kiesel set a school record in NCAA Tournament play with 32 points against Tennessee in 2015.

The Panthers continued to fight, however, and took the lead from redshirt sophomore Sophonria Sallard, who had played sparingly during the season. Sallard turned in a 6 for 6 performance and had the game of her life, helping to lead Pitt to a 63-58 victory.

Shavonte Zellous again led the team with 21 points and Mallorie Winn scored her 1,000th career point with a key three-pointer down the stretch. It was a hard-fought contest, but Pitt pulled out the 63-58 win down the stretch.

Up next for Pitt was the No. 3 seed and 12th-ranked Baylor Bears, who were just three years removed from a national championship. Pitt was the underdog in the game, but never approached it that way as the Panthers out-scored Baylor 41-31 in the second half to secure the 67-59 victory.

Zellous led the team with 19 points and Mercedes Walker added 17 on the night. Walker was having an exceptional night, but picked up two quick fouls and was forced to leave the game with 5:28 remaining.

Zellous took over and hit a critical three free throws after being fouled on a three-point attempt late in the game. The Bears could not recover and Pitt earned its first trip to the Sweet 16 to face Stanford.

Some expected Pitt to show up at the Sweet 16 meeting with No. 2 seed Stanford and simply bow out gracefully. The Panthers, however, had other plans for the night.

Pitt battled throughout the game and trailed by just one point with 8 and a half minutes remaining.

The Cardinal proved to be too much, however, as Pitt went cold for more than three minutes and Stanford went on to a 72-52 victory where the game was much tighter than the final score. Zellous scored a team-high 22 points and the Panthers held Wade Trophy winner Candace Wiggins to 14 points, while not allowing her a first basket until 11:17 into the game.

Ranked 15th in the country, the Panthers appeared in the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive year, receiving a team-best No. 4 seed in the Oklahoma City Regional. Pitt traveled to Seattle, Wash. to play the No. 13 seed Montana Lady Grizzlies in the first round.

The Lady Grizzlies came out with a lot of energy and gave the Panthers a challenge in the first half as Pitt took just a one-point lead into the locker room at halftime. Powered by a strong defensive effort, the Panthers held the Lady Grizzlies to 10 second half points, tying the NCAA tournament record for fewest points allowed in a half.

All-American Shavonte Zellous kept the Panthers in the game in the first half scoring 15 of her game-high 31 points, becoming Pitt's all time single-season scoring leader in the process.

Sophomore Shayla Scott contributed 11 points, including a pair of 3-pointers to start off the second half.

Next up was No. 12 seed Gonzaga, who had just upset the fifth-seeded Xavier, and had the home crowd advantage. The Bulldogs did not make the game easy and battled with the Panthers until the final seconds but Pitt's experience – capitalizing on Gonzaga's critical mistakes late in the game – was the difference in the 65-60 victory.

Zellous scored nine of her 24 points in the final four minutes including two drives off of turnovers and a pair of free throws that put the Panthers up 63-60 with 15.9 seconds left. Senior Xenia Stewart hit two foul shots that sealed the game with three seconds left, helping the Panthers earn their second straight Sweet 16 appearance.

The Panthers traveled to Oklahoma City to face the fourth-ranked and No. 1 seeded Oklahoma

Pitt was the final at-large team selected to the 2015 NCAA Tournament field, picked as a No. 10 seed. The Panthers went on to upset No. 7

Sooners. Pitt stayed with the Sooners the first half of the game, going into halftime down by nine. But, with an arena filled with raucous Oklahoma fans and freshman point guard Whitney Hand having a career night with 22 points, the Sooners created a deficit that was too much to overcome in the second half.

The Panthers tried to make a rally the last 10 minutes of the second half, but their comeback efforts came up short as Oklahoma defeated the Panthers 70-59. Zellous led the Panthers with 18 points as their season came to an end.

2014-15

It was 8:52 p.m. on March 16, 2015, and the name Pittsburgh had still not been called.

There were four teams left to be revealed for the NCAA Tournament. You could cut the tension with a knife in the women's locker room which was hosting a watch party.

Surely the Panthers weren't going to get snubbed, right? A 19-11 regular season record, a seventh place finish in the ACC at 9-7, and four wins over top-50 RPI teams, it seemed like Pitt had done enough. But the Panthers were hoping not to have their bubbles burst.

Miami, who finished eighth in the ACC standing, had been called about 40 minutes earlier. It was hard to not think of the worst case scenario.

As the team, the coaches, their families, friends and Pitt athletic employees waited, Dari Nowkhah unveiled the last four teams for the 2015 NCAA Tournament.

"The 7 vs. 10 game in Knoxville, the seventh-seeded Chattanooga Mocs ... <pause> ... and the tenth-seeded Pittsburgh Panthers."

Pandemonium ensued.

Screams, laughter, tears, hugs. Every possible emotion you could think of, that locker room experienced it that night. Come to find out, the Panthers were the last at-large team announced.

The other three teams in the Knoxville bracket (Boise State, Chattanooga and Tennessee) had known they were going to be in. But not the Pitt Panthers.

And there it was. Pitt's fourth NCAA Tournament in program history, the first since 2009, and the first for head coach Suzie McConnell-Serio. "#PittWomensHoops" was trending in Pittsburgh that night.

Coming off an 11-20 season in McConnell-Serio's first season as Pitt's head coach, the Panthers were picked to finish last in the ACC, which made it all the more sweet when they heard their name called for the NCAA Tournament.

The Panthers went on to defeat the seventh-seeded and 17th-ranked Mocs in the first round of the tournament 51-40, snapping Chattanooga's 25 game winning streak.

Then came an opportunity to do what 55 other teams could not do – beat Tennessee on its home court in the NCAA Tournament.

Senior guard Brianna Kiesel did all she could, scoring a career-high 32 points. However, the Vols made their free throws down the stretch and went on for a 77-67 victory, ending Pitt's magical and unforeseeable season. Pitt had a final record of 20-12.

It was truly a season no one saw coming – unless you asked the coaches and the players. Suzie McConnell-Serio, for leading one of the nation's biggest turnarounds, was named a Naismith National Coach of the Year semifinalist.

2015-16

In a wild overtime game, Pitt outlasted North Carolina in the opening round of the 2016 ACC Tournament, 82-72, earning its first tournament win as a member of the league.

For the second time of the season against the Tar Heels, the Panthers had three players tally double-doubles, led by freshman Brenna Wise who had a monster game with a career-high 25 points and 10 rebounds.

Stasha Carey added 15 points and 10 rebounds, while Yacine Diop had 14 points and 12 rebounds. Point guard Aysia Bugg also had a standout performance with a career-best 20 points, and contributed seven rebounds and six assists.

With Pitt clinging to a 3-point lead, North Carolina's Jamie Cherry hit a desperation 30-foot 3-pointer with 0:01 seconds on the clock to force overtime. The Panthers regrouped and opened the extra session on a 7-0 run and ultimately outscored the Tar Heels 15-5 in overtime.

After the thrilling overtime victory against UNC, the Panthers had a hard time slowing down Miami offensively as the Hurricanes shot 60 percent for the game.

Both Wise and Diop scored 17 points for the Panthers. In her first ever postseason action, Wise averaged 21 points and eight rebounds in the two games.

2019-20

The Panthers saved their best game of the season for the opening round of the ACC Tournament as freshman Dayshanette Harris knocked down the game-winning jumper with 2.7 seconds left to secure a 67-65 victory for Pitt.

Harris drained a jumper with 2.7 seconds left to give Pitt the 67-65 lead over the defending ACC champs before securing the win with a steal on the ensuing inbound pass by the Irish.

The freshman sensation, Harris, finished off her first career double-double with 20 points, 10 rebounds, three assists and three steals as the Panthers notched their second ACC Tournament win in program history. It was the sixth double-double for a Panther in the ACC Tournament.

Junior Gabbie Green finished off her game with 14 points on 4-for-5 from behind the arc while Amber Brown added 12 points and Ismini Prapa came off the bench and netted 12 points on 4-for-4 from deep in the win.

After the thrilling win over Notre Dame, the Panthers weren't able to advance to the quarterfinals for the first time as #7 Georgia Tech earned the 68-58 win.

Harris once again led the Pitt charge as she netted 21 points and five boards while Brown added 12 points and seven rebounds in the defeat.

RETIRED NUMBERS

LORRI JOHNSON 24

Wearing jersey No. 24, Lorri Johnson dazzled Pitt fans from 1987 to 1991. Johnson is the University of Pittsburgh's all-time leading scorer, with 2,312 career points. Known for her uncanny ability to score the basketball, Johnson earned All-America honors during her senior campaign in 1991 and closed out her career being named to the All-Big East team three times. The New Castle, PA native led the Panthers in scoring in each of her four seasons including scoring the third most points (677) in a season in program history in the 1988-89 season. She also currently holds the school record for points in a game as she netted 45 against Kent State on Dec. 18, 1990. Her 266 field goals in the 1988-89 campaign are a school record and she currently ranks eighth in school history with 908 rebounds across her illustrious career. Johnson's No. 24 was retired at halftime of the Panthers ACC game against Boston College inside the Petersen Events Center on Jan. 13, 2019. She becomes the first female athlete at Pitt to have her jersey retired.

CAREER NOTES

- Native of New Castle, PA and New Castle High School
- All-time leading scorer in New Castle HS history and second all-time in Lawrence County women's basketball history with 2,110 career points in high school

RETIRED NUMBERS

JENNIFER BRUCE 12

Starring for the Panthers from 1981-85, Bruce remains one of the most productive and decorated players in Pitt basketball history. More than three decades following the conclusion of her collegiate career, she remains the second all-time leading scorer in Pitt basketball history—men’s or women’s—with 2,295 points. She averaged 20.5 points and 8.9 rebounds over her four seasons. Bruce’s scoring average is tied for the highest in program history (with the late Lorri Johnson). An exceptional all-around player, she still ranks in the top 10 of nearly every major statistical category for Pitt women’s basketball, including blocks (third, 203), rebounds (fifth, 998) and steals (seventh, 203). A three-time first-team All-Big East honoree, Bruce was named the 1984 Big East Co-Player of the Year after she averaged 23.8 points and 10.3 rebounds per game. She was named to the Big East Silver Anniversary Squad, recognizing the league’s greatest players over its initial 25 years. Bruce’s No. 12 was retired at halftime of the Panthers ACC game against Notre Dame inside the Petersen Events Center on Feb. 19, 2023.

Dominant center Marcedes Walker (2004-08) closed out her impressive career for the Panthers as the all-time leading rebounder (1,162) while also ranking sixth in career points (1,870).

PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER

A 12,508-seat basketball and multipurpose arena, the Petersen Events Center serves as the home for the Pitt men's and women's basketball programs, as well as numerous campus events, graduation ceremonies, concerts and modern recreational and fitness facilities.

Combined with the premier venues of Heinz Field, the UPMC Sports Performance Complex, the Fitzgerald Field House, Trees Pool and Petersen Sports Complex, the Petersen Events Center offers students, parents and fans an enthralling sports experience that stretches from Oakland to the South Side to the booming North Shore.

UPDATED AMENITIES:

The Petersen Events Center looked significantly different for the 2019-20 season with the court flip as well as extensive upgrades and improvements throughout the venue. Already bolstered by the $12.5 million addition of Pitt Studios in 2018, The Pete now features: LED lighting throughout the entire building, a new state-of-the-art centerhung video board, two end zone replay/stats boards, free public WiFi and a dedicated media WiFi network, a new media seating area and media room, enhanced and expanded premium seating areas, new in venue dining options at the PEC Food Court, and improved directional signage and environmental branding throughout the venue.

Back of the house upgrades included: men's and women's basketball locker room and lounge renovations, an enhancement of the teaching space with the creation of a theatre-style video room, expansion of the basketball office space with a new grand entrance as well as conference rooms for men's and women's basketball, redesign of areas around the locker rooms to create a more dynamic pathway to and from the main court.

PREMIUM SEATING UPGRADES/EXPANSION:

The Petersen Events Center features several premium seating options including; the Courtside Club, Platinum Club, Champions Club, and upper and lower level suites. All premium seating sections (outside of the suites) are available for purchase as part of the reseat process and have access to the Campus View Club.

PEC FOOD COURT

The food court on the lawn level of Petersen Events Center will also see changes heading into 2019-20 with Chik-fil-a and a new sushi location, Roc 'N Rolled, joining Sub Connection, Salad Sensations and Burrito Bowl as reliable, high quality food stops housed within the Petersen Events Center. The PEC Food Court is open daily throughout the school year, including during games and other special events at the venue.
